BIG CAMPAIGN FOR MEMBERS OF COMMERCIAL CLUB TO START THURSDAY

The campaign for 150 members in the re-organized Paris Commercial Club, to be launched Thursday, of this week, with a whirlwind drive has aroused widespread interest among the business and professional men of the city.

Eight teams of five men each, including a captain, will conduct the campaign under the leadership of two generals. Prospect cards, bearing the names of business and professional men who are expected to support the new organization, are being prepared and the eight teams, divided into two sections of four each, will meet before the campaign opens to distribute the prospect cards.

The officers and directors of the new organization have been warmly congratulated by business men upon the general attitude of the public towards the organization of an up-to-date commercial club, equipped to deal successfully with the many community problems that arise daily in this city.

The plan of operation provides departments and divisions for handling the work of the organization and the community in a business-like way that will insure results. Members are brought in close contact with the work of the body through the plan adopted, and instead of proceeding aimlessly, a definite program is laid out and responsibility fixed for the entire work of the organization.

President John T. Collins, in speaking of the proposed plans of the re-organized club, said:

"Paris has made several attempts to maintain an efficient commercial club and undertake to do the many things needed in this city and community, but there has been something lacking in our efforts to at-

BOURBON GUN CLUB SHOOT.

The regular "shoot" of the Bourbon Gun Club was held Friday afternoon on the club grounds, thirty-four club members and six visitors taking part. The F. B. Fallis trophy was hotly contested for and was unfinished, eight marksmen trying in the first fifty targets. In the "shoot-off" of the tie at twenty-five targets seven remained tied. This tie will be decided on the Club grounds next Friday.

tain success. We have discovered what the missing quantity is. It is a plan under which we can work without duplication of effort and under which each worker recognizes a fixed responsibility. Experienced organizations throughout the country employ a simple plan, modeled after the administration of successful business houses, which is getting results elsewhere, and will be introduced in the new commercial club.

"All of the plans in the world, however, will not succeed without support and co-operation. Whenever the business and professional men of this city take off their coats and throw themselves into the work of building up their community, casting aside all petty jealousies and misunderstandings, something is bound to give way in favor of a mighty step forward."

"Paris has everything to make it the most progressive and richest city in Kentucky, but it will not grow until the citizens determine that they are going to do their part towards making it grow and unite solidly to achieve success."

CO-OPERATIVE GROCERY TO BE ESTABLISHED HERE.

With the recent sale of the grocery stock, fixtures and good will of his business by Dan Jordan, to the Parakeet Company, there will be established in Paris what has for a long time been under consideration, a co-operative grocery. The new concern will be under the direction of a Board of Directors, composed of George W. Wilder, J. C. Nickerson and W. K. Griffin, local officials of the Louisville & Nashville. The venture will be financed largely by local employees of the Louisville & Nashville.

The Parakeet Co. operates a chain of co-operative stores located at different points in the State, and is establishing others. The Jordan store will be taken over by the new concern about the first of next month. At that time a manager will be selected to take active charge of the business. It is the plan of the new concern to sell goods at a rate that will enable them to make a living profit and at the same time serve their customers with goods at prices that will enable them, also, to combat the high cost of living.

AUTOMOBILE STOLEN.

While L. T. Watson and family were enjoying the screen play at the Grand Opera House, Saturday night someone stole his automobile, a 1919 model Ford, which is still in "port of missing machines." When Mr. Watson came out at the conclusion of the first presentation of "The Orphan," by William Farnum, and went to where his car had been parked, on Ninth street, it was conspicuous by its absence. The police were notified. The car bore a license tag No. 54242.

NEW PARKING ORDINANCE CAUSES MANY ARRESTS

The new parking ordinance passed at a recent meeting of the City Council, is being rigidly enforced, and has been the cause of bringing to grief a number of auto owners and drivers. The new measure went into effect Saturday, when the first move was made by the police in enforcing it.

Instructions were issued by Chief of Police Link to the police force to arrest every person who parked an auto on Main street longer than thirty minutes. The patrolmen were furnished a card bearing the ordinance in full and accompanied by a perforated tag. The tag was marked with the time the machine was found parked and the license number of the car. This was placed in the car, and when the patrolman returned, and the car was still there over the time limit, the hour was noted and the owner or driver notified to appear in Police Court.

Saturday afternoon Patrolman George W. Judy instituted a vigorous campaign and took four machines to headquarters and notified fifty others of the ordinance. Yesterday he was again especially vigilant, and served notice on several owners to appear in Court and stand the consequences of violation of the traffic regulations. The campaign is to continue as long as the ordinance is in effect and some of the police are determined to see that it is obeyed.

On the streets intersecting Main, between Main and Pleasant, machines may be parked only on the south side of the street, and between Main and High streets, on the north side.

Two thirds of the wine in Italy is manufactured in Sicily.

BURGLARS VISIT SIMON STORE SATURDAY NIGHT

Effecting an entrance by breaking a window glass in the rear of the store and unlatching a window catch, thieves ransacked the Harry Simon store Saturday night or early Sunday morning, taking a large quantity of valuable goods. The thieves secured a plank, which they placed against the side of the building, by means of which they ascended to the window through which entrance was gained. No traces were discovered in the rear of the building, and even the vines growing on the ground at that point were undisturbed, showing the visitors took special pains to leave nothing by which they could be traced.

When the store was opened for business Monday morning a scene of the utmost disorder was presented. Boxes were strewn over the floor, valuable stocks were thrown around and every indication given that unwelcome parties had been there. The thieves showed rare discrimination, taking only the most valuable and costly goods. A hasty inventory taken early yesterday morning showed that a large amount of goods had been stolen, among them the following: Seven ladies' skirts, three suits, three dresses, two Jersey blouses, eight Georgette waists, a large lot of silk hose, underwear, and other goods. Until a full inventory has been made it will not be known just how much had been stolen. The robbery was reported to the police, who are at work on the case.

"BOOTLEGGER" NABBED

Henry Hughes, colored, of Cynthia, was arrested Saturday night by Patrolman Robt. Lusk on a charge of having liquor in his possession in local option territory, presumably for purposes of sale. Patrolman Lusk noticed Hughes acting in a suspicious manner. Upon investigation he found a large quantity of contraband wet goods stored in half-pints in various portions of Hughes' clothing. Hughes was placed in the Paris jail to await a hearing in the County Court.

PLEASED WITH TICKET

That Kentucky Democrats are intensely pleased with the ticket and platform and whatever else was done at the Frisco convention is putting it mildly, and on every hand the opinion is expressed that the party has put its best foot forward in the great campaign to be waged for the control of the Federal Government. Kentucky was with Governor Cox from the start, and all hands agree that he is the one man who will make certain a party triumph in the State at the November polls, and because of this feeling the Democrats will enter the campaign with absolute confidence in the outcome, says the Louisville Times.

There is also a feeling of pride in the part Kentucky played in the national convention in the making of the platform and the selection of the ticket, the State winning a notable distinction in both achievements. Kentucky is considered absolutely safe for the Democrats in November.

Mrs. Etsu Inagaki Sugimoto, a Japanese woman, will give a course in writing and speaking the Japanese language at Columbia University.

MAY ASK CANTRILL TO DIRECT CAMPAIGN

According to expressions heard on all sides there seems to be a sentiment among Democrats that Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill is the logical person to manage the Democratic campaign in Kentucky this year, says the Louisville Times.

Many go so far, continues the Times, as to say that Congressman Cantrill should be drafted for the purpose. It is pointed out that besides being very close to Gov. Cox, the Presidential nominee, and having much to do with his nomination Mr. Cantrill probably has no peer as an organizer, which was fully demonstrated in 1916, when under his leadership as campaign manager, a majority of over 28,000 was rolled up for President Wilson in one of the hardest-fought campaigns ever waged in the State.

The friends of Congressman Cantrill are confident that he can equal or eclipse this performance, and that is why they want him to direct the fight ahead.

KINGHTS OF PYTHIAS OUTING.

The members of Rathbone Lodge, No. 12, Knights of Pythias, of this city, are planning for an outing to be given at the Pythian Home, in Lexington, on Sunday, July 25. A special car over the interurban line will be chartered for the transportation of the members and their families. The rate for the round trip will be announced in the Paris papers later on.

Each member will take with him a well-filled basket and other things calculated to help make the day an enjoyable one. Music will be rendered by the Girls' Orchestra of the Home, and a program of enjoyable events will be observed. This outing is an annual event with the local lodge, and always means a good time for those who attend. The members of the Pythian Sisters, the K. of P. auxiliary, will also go on the trip and help to make things pleasant. The special car will leave Paris about nine o'clock on the morning of July 25, and will return at a convenient hour in the evening.

CAMPAIGN BUSINESS

A few businesses are certain to boom this year, no matter what happens to the generality. One is the celluloid business; the Republicans have ordered fifteen million celluloid buttons and out of natural pride the Democrats will have to do as well. The poster-paper business will also prosper, with five million Republican posters ordered and large Democratic consignments on the way. Bunting men are happy at the prospect of millions and millions of American flags and billions of yards of red, white and blue cloth which will be used to decorate halls and platforms in and on which the spellbinders will hold sway.

The glass and water pitcher makers are also in high spirits, for they can count on a large sale of these commodities to committees having public meetings in charge. The palm-leaf fan season is perhaps past its height, but the manufacturers did a wonderful business during the Chicago convention and will show a larger profit than usual. There is a brisk movement in throat lozenges and cough drops and the nerve sanitariums are planning to handle a late rush of patients who allowed themselves to grow too excited or made large bets on the wrong candidates. Telephone, telegraph and railway companies should prosper by the conveyance of politicians and politicians' messages, and the consumption of large black cigars will greatly increase. Possibly the season for the renting of back rooms in hotels for political deals is nearly over, but the hotel men must have made big winnings on such rooms.

It is evident from these few examples that a Presidential campaign, contrary to tradition, need not be a time of business depression.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE A FAVORITE IN KENTUCKY

In respect to Governor Cox, Kentucky is in almost as favored position as if he were a native son. He is a near and cordial neighbor and Kentucky Democracy supported him strong from the start, with just enough division to show that the sentiment for him was spontaneous and natural, not "worked up." We will see the force of this situation in November, for Kentuckians, whether Democrat or Republican, have not much taste for being bossed by outsiders and the fact that Harding did not get a Kentucky vote until it had all been fixed up for him, will be sure to tell.

PROMINENT NEWSPAPER MAN DIES SUDDENLY

Graham Vreeland, publisher of the Frankfort State Journal, and owner of the Dearing Publishing Company, died at Norton Infirmary, in Louisville, Thursday, of apoplexy.

Mr. Vreeland, his wife and daughters, motored down from Frankfort, Wednesday. He had been in poor health and came to Louisville for treatment. Aside from high blood pressure, there was no symptom of any serious danger, however, and none thought of a fatal termination.

Mr. Vreeland was born in Washington county in 1871. After leaving high school he became a reporter for the Courier-Journal and rose to the position of managing editor. For twenty years he reported the Legislature for the Courier-Journal and was known to politicians from one end of Kentucky to the other.

Eight years ago he purchased an interest in the Frankfort State Journal and since then has been in the publishing and printing business. He had been very successful and amassed a fortune.

Mr. Vreeland is survived by his mother, wife and daughters, Annabelle and Margaret, 19 and 16 years old respectively, and by two brothers, Rev. Walter and Hubert Vreeland. His aged mother is prostrated. The body was taken to Frankfort for interment.

—THE NEWS acknowledges receipt of the following, showing how a former Paris boy is forging to the front in a business way: "We take great pleasure in announcing the association of Mr. D. C. McNamara with our organization as State Representative for our three plants, The Indiana Veneer & Panel Co., The Hoosier Panel Co., New Albany, Ind., The Crescent Panel Co., Louisville, Ky."

—Miss Elizabeth Thompson entertained Friday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Thompson, on Linden Walk, in Lexington, with an informal party in honor of her cousin, Miss Mary Spears, of Paris, who is her guest. About forty guests were present. The home and the spacious lawn were brilliantly lighted. Ices, cakes and bonbons were served. The guests drew their favors from a mammoth pie.

—Miss Margaret Shropshire charmingly entertained at bridge at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Shropshire, on East Pike street, in Cynthiana, in honor of Miss Mildred Lisle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Lisle, of Paris, whose engagement to Mr. W. W. Senter, of Hazard, Ky., and Bristol, Va., has been announced, the marriage to take place this month. The Shropshire home was decorated with hollyhocks and sweet peas. After the games egg kisses, whipped cream, cake and cake were served. The first prize, a box of beautiful note paper, went to Mrs. John T. Reynolds; the second prize, a deck of cards, to Mrs. Annie Bell Wallace, of Paris; and the silver tray was presented to the guest of honor. Among those present were Mrs. W. G. McClintock and Mrs. White Varden, of Paris; and Miss Helen Kunkel, of Cleveland, O.

NEWS ADS GETS 'EM!

There is no discounting the fact that advertising in THE NEWS pays. It has been proven time and again. Mrs. Ellen C. Kiely placed a small advertisement in THE NEWS a short time ago, desiring to sell some articles of household use, and found a purchaser the same day the ad appeared in the paper. M. J. Murphy lost a pair of spectacles, and had an ad inserted in THE NEWS offering a reward for their return. The glasses were found and returned to Mr. Murphy before THE NEWS went to press. The ad would have found them just the same, and M. J. was just as well satisfied as it was. It pays to advertise—in THE NEWS.

STOCK, CROP, ETC.

Jonas Weil, of Lexington, purchased of Hiram Roseberry, of near Paris, a bunch of eighty head of fat cattle at a price not made public. J. G. Rogers and Jonas Weil purchased of George Redmon, of Paris, a bunch of fancy export cattle at $15 a hundred. Caywood & McClintock, of Paris, purchased of James L. PARIS WHEAT MARKET HIGH- EST PRICE REPORTED

So far as the local market is concerned, the highest in the State, the millers are paying $2.75 per bushel for the new wheat, No. 2 grade. This price was reported yesterday by the Paris Milling Co. and E. F. Spears & Sons.

The new wheat crop is reported as excellent in quality, ranging in weight from 59 to 60 pounds to the bushel. The yield, though, is light, due to a smaller acreage having been planted than in preceding years. Two years ago the average was larger, but the quality was not so good.

COUNTY PLANNING

The bright business man, and farmer of to-day is not satisfied with just hustling for his own business. He knows that to reach the limit of expansion there must be a growth of prosperity all over his neighborhood. He consults with other business men and they lay out plans to develop their country.

They help farmers who need loans to get them. They arrange for demonstrations of scientific agriculture. They work to improve stock, and encourage people to keep more farm animals. The production of many counties can be doubled in a few years by systematic promotion. Could we not do it here in Bourbon county?

COSTS MORE TO DIE

Following up the increased cost of living, it now costs more to die and a little bit more to be buried. Quite recently the Paris Cemetery Co. announced a raise in prices for single lots and for digging graves. Now comes the Colored Cemetery Co. with an announcement of a similar import. On account of their inability to enlarge the cemetery by purchase of more ground, they have advanced the price of single graves from $7.00 to $10. Alive, dying or dead, there is always the clutching hand of old Hi Cost extended.

Wesley's Physical Toughness. Spare diet and constant exercise in the keen morning air helped to endow Wesley with that amazing physical toughness which enabled him, when eight-five years old, to walk six miles to a preaching appointment and declare that the only sign of old age he felt was that "he could not walk nor run quite so fast as he once did."—W. B. Frichett in "Wesley and His Country."

BRIGHTER EVENINGS

Just History

In '76
The Colonial Dame
Spun her cloth
By Candle flame.

In 1860
In Crinoline bright,
She greeted her guests
By Coal Oil light.

And later on,
How time does pass
Her home was lit
By flickering Gas.

But the girl of to-day
Who wants her home bright,
Just presses a button
And has Electric Light.

Suppose You Had to Rebuild Every 14 Years?

If you knew that most everything in your house had to be rebuilt every 14 years you would—if you were wise—lay aside one-fourteenth of the cost every year, to be used in replacing the stairs, windows and other parts when they wore out.

If you were renting that house to someone else, you would have to charge enough rent to provide that one-fourteenth a year, besides taxes, insurance, current or temporary repairs and interest.

That is exactly what the telephone company must do if it is to stay in business permanently—charge enough for its service to provide each year's quota of this rebuilding money, besides all other expenses.

That constant wearing out is "depreciation", and the annual quota to meet it is the "depreciation reserve"—and it is just as necessary as the wages for the company's employees!

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford car can well be called the "people's car," because there are more than 3,000,000 of them in daily operation. That is about four to one of the nearest follower in the motor car industry. This would not be so if the Ford car had not for sixteen years proven its superiority in service, in durability, and in the low cost for operation and maintenance; this would not be so if the Ford car was not so easy to understand, so simple in construction that anybody and everybody can safely drive it. SUMMER SCHOOL HELD BY COLORED TEACHERS

A successful Summer School, to continue five weeks, has been inaugurated in Paris, conducted by teachers of the colored schools of Paris and Bourbon county, in conjunction with teachers from several of the surrounding counties. The work being undertaken is of a very high order, and much enthusiasm is being manifested. The attendance is above the average usually present at similar meetings.

Instruction in primary methods is being given by Mrs. Hill, of Indianapolis, a specialist in educational teachings. Mrs. Lillian J. Brown, of Indiana, is specializing in the teaching of history, and the advanced rank. Work in agriculture is being conducted under the supervision of Andrew D. Owens, Supervisor of Colored Schools of Montgomery county. The department of Home Economics is in charge of Gene White, who has done creditable work at Hamilton Institute. Physical training is being looked after by F. A. Taylor. The teachers and Prof. F. M. Wood, principal of the Western High School, in this city, are working to advance the cause of education among their people.

"SET ME RIGHT TWO YEARS AGO"

Louisville Man Says He Has Had Splendid Health Since Tanlac Ended His Troubles

"You may put me down as one Louisville man who will always praise Tanlac, for it set me right two years ago and has kept me in fine shape ever since," said W. T. Carmen, 442 South First street, Louisville, Ky., in conversation with a special Tanlac representative recently.

"Before I got Tanlac," he continued, "I had suffered from indigestion for twenty years, and during that time I had many acute attacks that rendered me unfit for work for several weeks at a time. My stomach seemed to be weak and upset nearly all the time, and after every meal I suffered from a sour gas that formed on my stomach. Then several years ago I was taken down with a spell of typhoid fever that left me in a badly run-down condition, and my stomach in a worse shape than ever. My liver became sluggish, I was constipated all the time and had that tired, worn-out feeling. My joints were stiff and every bone in my body seemed to ache, and I also suffered from bronchial trouble.

"Following my usual custom of trying everything I heard of, when I saw Tanlac advertised I bought a bottle, and after taking about half of the first bottle I knew I had at last struck the right medicine, for there was considerable improvement in my condition. I stuck right to Tanlac until my troubles completely left me and I felt like a new man. Since that time, two years now, I have made it a rule to take a bottle of Tanlac about every six months to tone up my system, and it keeps me in fine shape. I eat just anything I want at any time and never have an ache or a pain. So I can testify to both the immediate and lasting results that come from Tanlac, and I am glad to make a public statement for what it may be worth to others who are needing such a medicine."

THE INSURANCE MAN

The community should appreciate the service given it by the men in the insurance business. They are a force always working for fire prevention. They warn property owners of hazardous conditions. They agitate for Clean-Up Days and other movements to get rid of inflammable rubbish. They protest against fire traps. Fires cost high. You pay in taxes, in insurance premiums, in losses not covered by insurance. The man who owns no buildings, and pays no taxes, yet pays for fire costs in his rent. Also the insurance man persuades a lot of improvident men to provide for their families by life insurance. You may dodge around the corner to get rid of an insurance solicitor, and later you or your family may regret it. Incidentally it could be remarked that the insurance man is greatly assisted in his work of community service by advertising his excellent proposition in THE BOURBON NEWS.

Kingtchen an Ancient City.

Kingtchen is one of the four largest towns of China. Technically it is not a city. It is a town, because it has no wall. In reality it is a busy industrial city, with a population of 300,000. Two-thirds of the people are directly engaged in the manufacture and sale of porcelain and pottery. Historically it dates back to the Han dynasty, 200 A. D. It is during this period that we find the first records of the production of porcelain in China, though earthenware vessels were probably produced some centuries earlier.

The Eye of the Cat.

As showing how widely the permanently blue eyes of cats differ from other eyes, it is noted that immediately the eyes of white cats that are to have permanently blue eyes open they shine bright red in the dark. No other colored eye does this.

COURTESY FROM MOTORISTS

There is among motorists a general disposition to turn on the dim lights when meeting a fellow traveler on the highway. But sometimes there is a persistent doggedness that waits for the other man to make the initial overture. It has been the experience of the writer that such a courtesy meets with a ready response from nearly all motorists and certainly it adds to the pleasure of motoring by night.

But there is a greater reason than courtesy for the dimming of lights on the highway. Several deaths have been caused in Kentucky in the last few months from the blinding of one driver by the glaring headlights of another automobile sweeping downward from the crest of a hill, such as adds to the attractiveness of travel through the State, or around a horse shoe curve. More often still serious accidents have been avoided only by one driver stopping his car until the blinding glare of the other was behind him. The danger from this source is greater than from speeding across the open country, and ordinary courtesy is its solution.

LUSITANIA LIFE BELT PICKED UP IN RIVER.

A life jacket, silent remembrance of the tragic sinking of the Lusitania five years ago, and bearing a strand of faded blonde hair, was picked up last week in the Delaware River.

The name of the ship the Germans torpedoed still remained, clear and distinct, on the wave-beaten canvas, which had been adrift on the seas throughout three years of war and two of peace.

The life jacket, which was found by two railroad detectives, was covered with slime and seaweed, with one arm-strap broken. On one side were the words, "life belt," and on the other, in large black letters, the inscription, "Lusitania."

The "Exide" Starting & Lighting Battery is a FIGHTING BATTERY

During the war it was used as auxiliary power on Uncle Sam's big battleships, for turret turning, for gun firing, for wireless and for many other vital purposes.

It is a fighting battery, indeed, all the time, in peace as well as war. It is fighting the starting and lighting battles of motorists all over the country; fighting them and winning them.

An "Exide" Battery in your car will put a sturdy, willing and dependable power supply behind your starting and lighting system. It will do for you exactly what it is doing for hundreds of thousands of other car owners, making "A Sure Start Assured" a proved fact.

COMMERCIAL CLUB SENDS SPECIAL DELIVERY NOTICES

In connection with the Paris Commercial Club membership drive, which begins Thursday, special delivery notices were sent yesterday to merchants in Paris. THE NEWS would like to suggest that the Club take up for consideration better telephone service and repair of Main street. The letter sent out yesterday follows:

"Paris, Ky., July 19, 1920.
"You have doubtless heard of the recently organized Paris Commercial Club, and of the drive for membership which occurs on Thursday of this week. The writer personally urges you to be present at the County Court room on Tuesday, July 20, at 3 p. m., for the purpose of perfecting the organization for the drive.

"Don't throw this aside and say, 'It's no use, it's been tried before.' Come and do your part, and we will have a real live club that will accomplish much good. Can you think of any needed things that might be accomplished by united action? How would better telephone service and a more wholesome water supply do for a starter? Individual complaints have failed to produce results. The efforts of the community as a whole led by such an organization as the Commercial Club proposes to be will produce results along this and other lines, and make Paris a better town to live in. Come to the Court House at 8:00 p. m., Tuesday, July 20, and show you are for a better and bigger Paris.

DEATHS.

MERZE.
—Sallie J. Merze, aged nine years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Merze, residing on Marshall street, died at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in this city, at three o'clock, Sunday morning, of appendicitis. She is survived by her parents, two brothers and one sister. The funeral will be held at two o'clock this (Tuesday) afternoon, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. B. F. Orr.

CAMERON.
—Mrs. Sallie Cameron, aged thirty-four, died Friday night at her home on the Jackson Pike, near Paris, after a short illness. Mrs. Cameron was the wife of Isaac Middleton. Besides her husband she is survived by her father, two children, four brothers and two sisters. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon with services conducted at the grave in the Millersburg Cemetery, by Rev. Wm. Morton, pastor of the Millersburg Presbyterian church.

GIBSON.
—Mrs. Bettie Payne Gibson, aged about seventy years, died at her home in Dayton, Ohio, last week, after a short illness of a complication of diseases. Mrs. Gibson was the widow of the late Mr. A. B. Gibson, and resided in this city for many years. Her husband was employed at the monumental works of the late Mr. W. A. Hill. Mrs. Payne was a daughter of Mr. William Payne, of Millersburg, and a sister of Mrs. Charles J. Lancaster, of Paris, both of whom preceded her to the grave many years ago. Mrs. Gibson is survived by two daughters, Miss Iva Gibson, who resided at the family home in Dayton, and Mrs. Alice Gibson Smith, residing in Chicago. The funeral and interment took place in Dayton.

LENOX.
—The body of James Lenox, aged twenty-three, formerly a resident of this city, who died in the General Hospital, in Cincinnati, Friday morning, from the effects of injuries received in a fall from the Baldwin building, in Cincinnati, was brought to Paris, Friday afternoon, and taken to the home of his parent, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lenox, on South Main street.

The funeral was held from the family home Saturday afternoon, at three o'clock, with services conducted by Rev. C. H. Greer, pastor of the Paris Methodist church. The burial followed on the family lot in the Paris Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Chas. Throckmorton, Hanson West, Harold Harp, William Rowland, Bryan Doty, Grant Samuels, Elmer Newman and Newton Arnold.

Mr. Lenox was a member of Bourbon Council, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, the members of which attended the funeral in a body. He was for many years in the employ of the Louisville & Nashville at this point, moving to Covington several months ago, where he obtained employment with a large construction firm. While at work on the Baldwin building near the entrance of Eden Park, he made a misstep, falling four stories to the ground below, his skull being fractured, both arms broken, and other serious injuries sustained.

WHALEY.
—Following an illness of several months duration, due to the infirmities of age, Wm. H. Whaley, aged about eighty-four, one of the best-known residents of Paris, died at his home on the Lexington pike, near this city, Friday morning.

Mr. Whaley was born in Pennsylvania, but came to Kentucky with his parents at an early age. He became engaged in farm work, and for many years resided on a farm near Clintonville. For the larger part of a long and useful life he was engaged in farming and stock raising, in which he continued actively until the infirmities of age compelled his retirement. Mr. Whaley was a gallant member of the Nineteenth Kentucky Infantry, in the Confederate service during the Civil War, going through the entire four years of that strife and emerging with a clean and honorable record as a soldier and man. His death leaves but one member of the famous Orphan Brigade now living in Bourbon county, Mr. Lot Young, of Paris.

Mr. Whaley's wife, who, before her marriage was Miss Nannie Wells, preceded him to the grave ten years ago. He is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Rosa Leeds, Miss Elizabeth Whaley, of Bourbon county, Mrs. Jennie Saunders, of Parkersburg, West Va., Mrs. Lacey Clarke, of Lexington, and Mrs. W.

G. Stevens, of Chillicothe, Ohio, and three sons, Charles, William and Clarence Whaley, all of this county.

The funeral was held at the family home Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, with services conducted by Rev. C. H. Greer, pastor of the Paris Methodist church. The interment took place on the family lot in the Paris Cemetery. The committal services at the grave were in charge of his former comrades-in-arms, members of the local Camp of Confederate Veterans, survivors of the days when they were a band of devoted soldiers fighting the cause of the South.
